This is a private haven where a creative contemporary four bedroom home resides in perfect harmony with its nature filled surrounds. There is space to breath here, to relax and let the busy life fall away.

The open plan includes a large living zone that flows from the main hub of the kitchen and dining area. In this light filled space, full height picture windows invite you to take in the picturesque outlook. The eucalypts frame the views to the river valley and to the paddocks complete with grazing kangaroos.

Sliding doors from the dining zone provide access to an enormous deck and it is just the perfect outdoor living room. There is space to entertain, relax and play or to sit and watch the king parrots watching you idly from the trees.
