Breathtaking ocean views, twelve hill top acres and five bedrooms make this modern convex, double glazed home a clear winner in the race for spacious, quiet, serene living. The sprawling living, dining, kitchen area fans out to embrace the expansive vista and spills into two separate sleeping / bathing zones.

The quiet glow of polished timber floorboards, the luxury of quality carpets, the joy of a first-class kitchen and the embrace of the outdoors at every opportunity make this home a delight.

The beginnings of the rain forest are a short stroll into the valley with its ferns, native trees, bushie gullies, and spring fed creek. All the while Bass Strait looms but a short distance beyond.
