It's almost believable that the term 'tightly held' was invented to aptly describe Wallis Street. Properties here remain within families throughout multiple generations and it is easy to see why. The tranquil cul de sac is home to only a handful of residences and the walkway at the end of the street ensures easy access to the pristine coast. Blending an original beach house with an architectural designed contemporary addition and full renovation has created a home with character and a modern edge. Spacious living pays homage to the northerly aspect and flows seamlessly to outdoor entertaining. Overlooking sunny peaceful gardens, the large deck provides an ideal
