A tree lined driveway creates an inviting entrance to this hidden haven with extensive views. As you enter the property, there is a palpable moment of transition from busyness to tranquillity, peace and privacy.

Centre stage of the 1,226 m² (approx.) leafy allotment is a contemporary two storey beach home. The impressive 180 degree vista from the upper level is captivating. Along with stunning blue water and coastal views to Lorne, there is a restful river valley landscape framed by native forest and rolling hills. This is all on show from the expansive open plan living area where soaring ceilings with exposed timber trusses and beams and beautiful solid timber flooring complement the crisp white decor. Multiple French doors open to outdoor living where
