For those that appreciate a residence finished to the highest standards, this private and beautiful property will not fail to impress. Enjoying a sunny, quiet location set on substantial 1007sqm (app) native allotment overlooking the Great Otway National Park, the double storey four bedroom residence is of a standard that any new owner would consider making it their permanent or semi-permanent home. The substantial split level open plan living area is a stunning room that opens out on to a large north facing sundeck that is the perfect sun trap all year round. With a well appointed contemporary kitchen at one end, a Jetmaster open fire at the other and a gorgeous Blackbutt timber floor connecting the two, this space is somewhere where you immediately want to spend time in.
