Offers required by 30 November 2021

With a 6km long beach in front of you and the Great Otway National Park at the rear of the substantial 1900sqm (app) allotment, this stunning residence sits beautifully in its elevated position, capturing breathtaking ocean views from Aireys Inlet to Lorne. The 4 bedroom residence is an architecturally iconic land mark on the Great Ocean Road and is presented to the market in excellent condition. The overwhelming feeling that you have upon entering the residence is one of positivity due to its ability to capture natural light, but also one of privacy due to its elevation despite its prominent position. The multi-level open plan living area is a highlight as it is architecturally interesting and at the same time captures a different aspect of the
