It may be the quiet setting, it may be the impressively large and well decorated open plan living area, it may be the well-appointed kitchen or the large, covered rear sun deck or the combination of all these that makes this residence so tranquil. You feel relaxed from the moment you step inside and the gorgeous native garden outlook through every window make this property so appealing and it just feels great to spend time there. Centrally located in Aireys Inlet, the residence is within easy walking distance to shops, restaurants, beaches and the pub. The immaculately presented 3 bedroom, single storey dwelling, set on a 722sqm native landscaped allotment, has many features including polished timber floors and wood fire. The property
