The sight of waves hitting the sand and the peaceful uncluttered space provided by a sunny blue ocean has always been held in the highest regard in the Australian psyche. To have this directly in front of your beach house is a privilege shared by very few. In this world class location is an opportunity to secure your position on the front row of one of Australia's best beaches. Located just 90 minutes from Melbourne and positioned a few hundred metres from the iconic Great Ocean Road Arch, this stunning four bedroom residence enjoys one of the most picturesque ocean views imaginable. The interaction between the immediacy of the beach and surf, and the residence was a conscious design feature by renowned architect Andy Sprogis. Built over four levels, but with car access right to
